3 Summary of significant accounting policies (continued)

b) Property, plant and equipment

Property, plant and equipment are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and identified impairment loss, if any. The costs comprises of purchase price, levies, duties and any directly attributable costs of bringing the asset to its working condition. The cost of property, plant and equipment is depreciated using the straight-line method.

c) Impairment of Assets

Property, plant and equipments are reviewed for impairment, whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of an asset may not be recoverable. Whenever the carrying amount of an asset exceeds its recoverable amount, an impairment loss is recognised in the statement of income.

d) Provisions

Provisions are recognised when the Establishment has a present obligation as a result of a past event, which it is probable, will result in an outflow of economic benefits that can be reasonably estimated.

3 Summary of significant accounting policies (continued)

e) Revenue recognition

When the outcome of the transaction involving the rendering of services can be estimated reliably, revenue associated with the transaction shall be recognised by reference to stage of completion of the transaction at the balance sheet date. The outcome of a transaction can be estimated reliably when all the conditions are satisfied:

- i. The amount of revenue can be measured reliably;
- ii. It is probable that the economic benefits associated with the transaction will flow to the entity;
- iii. The stage of completion of the transaction at the balance sheet date can be measured reliably; and
- iv. The cost incurred for the transaction and the costs to complete the transaction can be measured reliably

f) Provision for staff terminal benefits

Amounts required to cover end of service indemnity at the balance sheet date are computed pursuant to the United Arab Emirates Federal Labour Law based on the employees' accumulated period of service and current basic remuneration at the balance sheet date.

Employees' terminal benefits are accounted on cash payment basis.

EXCEL INFO FZERas Al Khaimah – United Arab Emirates*Notes to the Financial Statements*For the year ended March 31, 2017

3 Summary of significant accounting policies (continued)g) Foreign Currencies

Transactions denominated in foreign currencies are initially recorded at the rates of exchange prevailing on the dates of the transactions. Monetary items denominated in foreign currencies are translated at the rates prevailing on the balance sheet date. Gains and losses arising are included in the statement of income. Non-monetary items that are measured in a foreign currency are translated using the exchange rate at the date when the fair value was determined.

h) Financial instruments

Financial instruments comprise financial assets and financial liabilities. Financial assets and financial liabilities are recognised on the entity's balance sheet when the entity has become a party to the contractual provisions of the instrument. A financial asset is any asset that is cash, a contractual right to receive cash or other financial asset, a contractual right to exchange financial instruments under conditions that are potentially favourable or an equity instrument. A financial liability is any liability that is a contractual obligation to deliver cash or another financial asset, or to exchange financial instruments under conditions that are potentially unfavourable.

i) Cash and cash equivalents

For the purposes of the statement of cash flows, cash and cash equivalents comprise cash on hand and balance with bank, within maturity date of three months or less from the date of deposit, free of encumbrances.
